

EUROPEAN SEA PORTS ORGANISATION
ROTTERDAM | 31 MAY – 1 JUNE

Pursuant to the personal data ESPO informs you that by filling in this form used for ESPO Conference 2018 to be held in Rotterdam on 31 May and 1 June 2018, you accept that the personal data obtained through it, as well as any other data provided throughout the relationship, will be included in a computerized data file and may be used by the Company for sending the information requested, for compiling tourist statistics and for sending information in the future. However, if you do not want your data to be used for the purposes mentioned, except for sending the information requested, please write an email to mail@espo.be

In the same way, it is expressly stated that ESPO is the final recipient of these data and that interested parties may exercise their right to access, amend, cancel or oppose their personal data, on legal terms, either by coming to our offices or by sending an e-mail to the address shown above.

Likewise, if personal data are provided to the company during the course of the relationship, it must be guaranteed that it is legally authorized to provide the said data and that it has proceeded to inform the interested parties about this transfer of data, complying at all times with the legislation in force. Otherwise, it undertakes to take responsibility for any infringement or fine that might be imposed on the Company arising out of said breach of the regulations as regards personal data protection.

Please also note that pictures of you might be taken during the whole event (31 May and 1 June), as well as during the official Conference Dinner. Those pictures might be published on our website (www.espo.be) or on Social Media (Twitter, LinkedIn). If you don't agree with this, please let us know by writing us a mail to events@espo.be